

Meet the New Resident Director of Radnor ABC

Isabel Clark, the new resident director of Radnor -- A Better Chance, began her work with A Better Chance as a resident tutor with the Lower Merion chapter in Ardmore, a position she held for five years. A graduate of Haverford College, Isabel taught middle school English for two years at East Side Charter School in Wilmington, Delaware. While earning her master's degree in English at Temple University, she taught freshman writing at Philadelphia University. She now coaches soccer with Soccer Shots of Montgomery and Delaware Counties, and for the past three summers has been a senior counselor at Arrowhead Day Camp.

Isabel grew up in Knoxville, Tennessee, where she played basketball and soccer in high school. She spent two summers as a counselor and then a head counselor at the Fresh Air Fund – Camp Hidden Valley in Fishkill, New York, where she discovered her passion for working with youth. Besides NFL Sundays and rainy-day movies, Isabel loves to go hiking and is an avid reader. She spends a lot of her free time volunteering with Books through Bars, a non-profit organization based in West Philadelphia that distributes free books and educational materials to incarcerated people

What she loves most about the ABC experience is the opportunity to see scholars grow, both academically and emotionally. She is excited to get to know the group of intelligent and dynamic students of Radnor -- A Better Chance!
